

European Graduate Supply Chain Program – 2017 – 18 months Program – commencing September 2017 (Ploiesti)

We win through great people, working together to become First Choice for Consumers and Customers.

Our purpose at Molson Coors Europe is to delight the world's beer drinkers. We are TalentBrewers - we believe in our brands and our people, we believe that a truly inspiring and diverse place to work is a must. So if you get fired up about making a real difference as part of a winning team like we do, then we want to hear from you.

Are you graduating in Food Science and Engineering / Sciences and Environment / Applied Chemistry and Materials Science / Biotechnical Systems Engineering / Transport and Traffic Engineering and are you thirsty for a bright and rewarding career with a global beer business? Then look no further - at Molson Coors we are looking for ambitious self-starters with the confidence and drive to succeed to join our Europe wide Supply Chain Trainee Program.

We've created a culture that focuses on talent development & supports work-life balance which allows our employees to thrive! Our comprehensive employee development programmes ensure that at Molson Coors, everyone has the opportunity to challenge themselves, develop & be successful.

Our over-arching ambition therefore is simple - to be first choice for consumers and customers, and our Market leading portfolio of brands tells us we're doing a great job! In our stable you'll find a surprising range of great tasting beers including Bergenbier, Beck's, Staropramen, Stella Artois, Leffe, Corona, Carling, Coors Light, Cobra, Singha and Blue Moon - to name a few.

Where is the program based and what can I expect to be doing?

Our European Supply Chain Graduate Program will be based across our European Brewery locations including but not limited to the Czech Republic, Croatia, Hungary, Romania, Montenegro and Serbia. For a full break-down of our European locations please click this link: <http://www.molsoncoors.com/en/our-story/our-markets/molson-coors-europe>

This program will give you exposure across all areas of brewing operations, such as packaging, brewing, logistics, and planning to name a few! You will be working with fellow trainees across our other European locations to deliver key business projects.

Our aim is to give you enough exposure and training, that at the end of the 18-month program you secure a Supervisory/Managerial position with us!

When you join us as a Supply Chain Graduate you can expect the following -

- Valuable experience within an innovative & challenging global organisation
- Opportunities to demonstrate your creativity and capability
- Quality coaching, mentoring, leadership development and support to grow your career with the business
- Flexible working practices, benefits and rewards

About You

- We are looking for fresh graduates (2016 or 2017), with degree in one of the areas mentioned above
- Fluency in English & local language, knowledge of another European language will be a plus
- Willingness to travel is essential and flexibility to relocate to other city from Europe would be an advantage
- Maximum 1 year of working experience after graduation

Bergengier & Molson Coors Europe is looking for highly motivated graduates, demonstrating natural leadership ability and passion to learn within a cutting-edge industrial and cross-border environment. A focus on delivering quality work is key as well as excellent communication skills and the ability to adapt to changes and take initiatives in a growing multinational company.

If that sounds great then we'd like to hear from you!
